DESCRIPTION

When people visit Cusco, they tend to head straight to Machu Picchu, one of the New Seven Wonders of the World. But, there are many other highly important archaeological sites in and around the city that were also significant during the Inca empire. Join us on this exciting trip to the Sacred Valley of the Incas to visit key sites during the ancient civilization's reign.

On this day out, you can expect to stop at Ollantaytambo, Pisac's archaeological site and colorful market, the Inca site of Chinchero, and the Andean Textile Center. On the tour, from Ollantaytambo to Cusco, you'll have the chance to stop at some fantastic lookout points to witness the Andean Mountain's beauty and the stunning valley landscape.

OVERVIEW

Do you want to get out of the city and see the most significant archaeological complexes during the Inca empire? They can be found in the Sacred Valley of the Incas, and our tour will take you to them all on a fun day out full of culture, history, and astounding views. You can join us whether you're by yourself, in a couple, or as part of a larger group.

Our company specializes in organizing trips through the Sacred Valley ensuring that travelers take home a unique and unforgettable experience while soaking up the valley's beauty, culture, and history.

On this exciting day out, you'll get an opportunity to visit the most important Inca archaeological complexes in the valley and experience the Andean culture reflected in the art pieces, traditional markets, customs, and popular traditions in the towns of Pisac, Ollantaytambo, and Chinchero. The warm weather throughout the valley perfectly complements the trip to make this tour even more enjoyable.

Don't miss out on this excellent opportunity to learn more about the fascinating history of the Incas, see some beautiful views throughout the valley, and observe small communities and towns going about their daily lives. It's the perfect addition to your vacation in Cusco.

FEATURED DESTINATION OF THE DAY

CHINCHERO

Andean Textile

Highlight of the Day: Learning a lot about the Inca empire and understanding more about the different sites

Explore the Most Significant Inca Sites in the Sacred Valley

The tour starts in Cusco at 7:30 AM, your guide will pick you up from your hotel lobby in Cusco, then we will travel by our private car to the Sacred Valley of the Incas for around 45 minutes, on the way we will stop in strategic view points, we will be able to see the Sacred Valley and get into the Inca history, once we arrive to Pisac we will visit the famous typical craft market then, we will drive towards the ruins of Pisac, where we will see impressive agriculture terraces on the mountain and beautiful Inca temples, after exploring we head to the town of Urubamba (one hour drive) we will meet for lunch at a local Andean restaurant. This meal is not included in the tour, they usually offer buffet lunch.

After lunch, we will drive next to the Urubamba River towards Ollantaytambo. Once we reach this village we will visit the Inca City, and the important area of Inca construction, built during the Inca's heydays, Ollantaytambo Fortress that constituted a strategic military, agricultural and religious center to administer and control the Sacred Valley of the Incas; this is deduced by the constructions that presumably were for agricultural deposits and for military use like walls and watchtowers (probably to protect themselves from the jungle ethnic groups). This archaeological site comprises a series of overlapping terraces, showing the impressive and large stone blocks finely carved and located on the upper terrace, where descendants of the Incas are still living in the Inca houses.

On the way back to Cusco, we'll visit the picturesque village of Chinchoero where there are the remains of the "Royal Hacienda of Tupac Inca Yupanqui". You will admire its well-preserved Inca Wall in the Main Square and visit the beautiful colonial temple with interesting frescoes on the portico, this temple was built on the foundations of an Inca building. Here we can also visit its artisan market and enjoy the demonstration of the natural dyeing of wool and tissues.

The tour of the Sacred Valley ends in Cusco 6:00 PM approximately.
